Concept Question 11-2: Why is the maximum a posteriori probability (MAP) classifier different from the maximum likelihood (MLE) classifier?

The MAP classifier (Eq, (11.13)) is the MLE classifier (Eq. (11.12)) plus a term proportional to the a priori probability of the image being correlated with the observed image. This incorporates information about the likelihood of each image.