Concept Question 11-4: When is interpolation unnecessary for classification of spatially scaled images?

When the spatial scaling factor is a power of a known integer. The image is just non-uniformly downsampled.