Concept Question 4-2: Why must we delete rows and columns of the 2-D DFT array to perform downsampling?

Deleting rows and columns of the 2-D DFT array amounts to lowpass filtering, which is necessary to avoid aliasing, since the downsampled image may no longer be Nyquist-sampled.