

Concept Question 5-4: Why is the Laplacian a common choice for a high-pass filter?

Because its spatial frequency response, Eq. (5.18b), is circularly symmetric, and the discrete-space Laplacian spatial frequency response, Eq. (5.27), is approximately circularly symmetric, so no direction is filtered more than any other.