

Concept Question 9-11: What application of Markov random fields was covered in Section 9-11?

Classification of pixels into one of several classes, with most of the pixels in a given region classified into the same class.