

Concept Question 1-3: What is the emissivity of an object?

Emissivity is the ratio of energy radiated by an object to energy that would be radiated by an ideal black body (a perfect radiator) at the same physical temperature.